STRAITS MILITARY CONTROL
BUREAU.

The following letter has been addressed by Mr. Bennett Heaton to the Secretary of State for the Colonies:

Vice-Admiral, 10th February.

My Lord,—During my recent visit to the Straits Settlements I was requested by certain gentlemen of high character and position to bring before the Home Government, and, if necessary, before the British public, the following statement in respect of the existing Military Control, which I received from the Colonial Office. The case of the colonists appears to be an strong, this impression led me to bring it to your attention. May I trouble you to send, sir, your decided servant,

EDWARD FAIRFIELD.

RAISING NEWS.

RUSSIA'S DISLOCASATION HANDICAP.

The Dislocation handicaps Russia's efforts to expand its empire. The Russian Government has been compelled to withdraw its troops from Manchuria, and, however, it has not yet withdrawn its forces from Korea.

My Lord,—During my recent visit to the Straits Settlements I was requested by certain gentlemen of high character and position to bring before the Home Government, and, if necessary, before the British public, the following statement in respect of the existing Military Control, which I received from the Colonial Office. The case of the colonists appears to be an strong, this impression led me to bring it to your attention. May I trouble you to send, sir, your decided servant,

EDWARD FAIRFIELD.
